The Douk-Repairing of all kinds, and hobors, while not forcibly resisting, Horseshoeing promptly done stubbornly refused to move towards the cars, and had to be carried or First door north of Criterion Hotel. EAST SIDE OF TRACK, WETASKIWIN dragged. After being released from the rink and perceiving the intention of the authorities, the Doukhobors gathered in a solid mass, grasping hold of one another so that they had to be removed from their solid phalanx one by one. In most cases it required three or four men to remove one Doukhobor from the circle. After three hours work the wanderers were safely on board the train, most of which had been securely fastened and guards of mounted police placed at the doors of each car. About 9 o'clock the train pulled out for Yorkton.

At last accounts the Doukhobor pilgrims were walking from Swan River towards their deserted villages.

A Good Send Off.

The following extract is taken from the Port Hope Guide, and refers to a popular young man who has recently opened a law office in own.

"The Farewell Dinner tendered at Stoves, Ranges, and Heaters we offer secures more value than was ever before sold at such figures.

Designed and constructed on new principles they give great heat from a small quantity of fuel. Handsome in appearance and of great strength.

McCALLUM & WALLACE

from our midst.

Owing to pre-arrangement of mattez of detail which are usually left to the last moment, an early commencement was made. The dining-room of the Queens was tastefully decorated for the occasion with flowers and palms the tables being arranged in the form of a "Ti". At the centre of the "Ti" sat the Chairman, His Honer Judge Brwson. while on either side of him Benson, while on either side of him at the invited guests. After ample ustice had been done to the repast with which the appetites of those as-sembled had been tempted, the toast list was proceeded with. The toast scabled had been tempted, the toast list was proceeded with. The toast to "The King" was first proposed by the chairman, after while letters of regret weer eard from Mr. Harry S. White, Toronto, Mr. Frank L. Webb, B. A., Colborne, and Mr. Prector, Brighton, and the following telegram from Mayor White, who was in Toronto, came at the most opportune moment and elected hearty appliance. "Regret cannot be with you. Best wishes for a good time and Henwood's success."

rccess.

To the toast of the evening, "Our Guest," the chairman coupled the names of Mr. S. Smith and Dr. L. Powers, who proved themselves ma ters of the art of after-dinner speak Dowers, who proved themselves masters of the art of after-dinner speaking and demonstrated that the toastcould not have been placed in more capable hands. Rev. A. G. Sinchair, as an old College chum, Rev. E. Lanceley as his pastor, and Mr. T. Kirkconnell as his teacher at the old High School of bygone days; each made most appropriate remarks.

Mr. Henwood, although visably affected by the kind sentiments expressed by all, made a short and dectorous reply, touching on the various interests represented on the toast list and regretting deeply his departure from his native town and many friends.

Mr. Jack Renwick responded to the toast of "Lacrosse," and Mr. E.
Huycke, K. C., of Cobourg, was celled on to respond to the toast of "Lacry which he did in a very able manner, calling particular attention to Mr.
Henvood's legal ability and the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the bar, especially throughbut the Mildland district, prefetting- a profession, wherever his future lot may be east.

Messrs. Fred Curtis and Herb.
Brundrett succeeded in getting every-one present enthusiastic over "Hock-ey," and Mr. D. H. Chisholm responded to the toast, "Golf."

"The Ladies" were proposed by Mr.
Morgan Carry, who skilfully turned the subject over to Mr. C. B. B. Bowser, of Boston, one of the inviby his witty response.

"Our Host" was proposed by Mr.
A. H. O. Long, who paid Mr. Benn:t a well-deserved compliment on the excellence of the dinner provide, to behalf of the committee in charge Mr.
Long pointed out that the dinner was intended primarily as a send off by the boys, but owing to Mr. Henwood's intimate connection in sportner intimated the boys, but wing to Mr. Henvoora's intimate connection in sporting circles and his otherwise wide acquaintance, they were unable to extend invitations to as many of Mr. Henvoora's older friends as they would have liked. A most enjoyable evening was then brought to a close by singing "God Saves The Gings" and three cheers for "Gloores".

Calgary, N. W. T., Nov. 8.—The church census, which was taken of the city a week ago, was made public to-day. For various reasons no figures are given. It is indicat-ed, however, that the Church of England leaks the Presoyterians are second, the Methodists are third, the Englast fourth, the Salvation Army fifth. There are 35 people who have no religion.

By a series of explosions of pyro-echnic bombs and other fire works on by a series of exposition of typic technic bombs and other fire works on Wednesday night among a multitude gathered in Madison Square, New York City to witness the ascension of an air ship and the display of the el-cetion returns, 11 persons were killed outright. Many were blown almost to pieces and at least 50 injured, many of them fatally. It is estimat-ed that at least 30,000 persons throng-ed the square at the time of the ex-plosion, which was succeed by a ter-rible panie in which hundreds were thrown down and yrampled under foot.
